ter.SECOND TERM
FOR WILSON.

The announcement made by Vice President Marshall that Woodrow Wilson will be a candidate before the next democratic convention for nomination for a second term but confirm what the mass of democrats had uttered before. Coming, however, as it does from Mr. Marshall it gives it more of an official nature. Mr. Marshall says the re-nomination and election of Mr. Wilson is inevitable.

The present incumbent of the White House has had much with which to contend during the year and a half he has been in office, and in every emergency has proved to be the right man in the right place. Many representative republicans have been quick to acknowledge this. His genius as a diplomat during the Mexican troubles has been recognized, and at this time, while war is spreading over the old world, he has shown himself to be a safe pilot of the ship of state.

The Philadelphia Record says: "Vice President Marshall may or may not know the present intention of President Wilson regarding a second term. There is no question, however, that he voices the present Democratic sentiment when he intimates that if Mr. Wilson will consent to again lead the party in the 1916 Presidential race all others who may have aspirations in that direction may as well take down their lightning rods and store them until 1920."

"Long-established usage entitles Mr. Wilson to a second nomination, and in the critical situation in which the world's affairs are now, and are likely to remain for two or three years, the country is pretty certain to regard it as imprudent to change Administration."

"There are, however, positive as well as negative grounds for the election of the President. The Mexican situation has afforded an extraordinary vindication of his judgment, his clear-sightedness and his statesmanship. The Underwood tariff is rapidly vindicating the Democratic party. The new currency bill, a task which the Republican party shirked for 15 or 20 years, has the hearty approval of the whole business world. The policy of the Administration toward the Trusts leaves no doubt of the rigid enforcement of the laws without warfare upon business, or, in the President's own language, running amuck."

"Mr. Wilson has the confidence of the country, and the enthusiastic admiration of almost his whole party, and there is scarcely a doubt about his succeeding himself."

WHY THEY DO IT.

Druggists E. S. Leadbeater & Sons
Give Reasons for Selling at Half Price.

It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicines put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure said Druggist E. S. Leadbeater & Sons to one of their many customers, but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's remedy for constipation and dyspepsia on that plan. The Dr. Howard Co. in order to get a quick introductory sale authorized us to sell the regular fifty-cent bottle of their remedy for half price, 25 cents and although we have sold a lot of it, and guaranteed every package not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

We are still selling the specific at half-price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so. Any person who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion, or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this opportunity. If the remedy does not cure them, they can come right back to our store and we will cheerfully refund their money.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years of age, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

WAR AND COFFEE

All the Coffee consumed in America comes from foreign soil, and is transported to the United States in German and English vessels. In fact foreign countries supply the world with Coffee and their import trade at the present time is at a standstill on account of the great European war.

The Coffee held in warehouses in America is at the lowest ebb, and there seems but little chance in the near future to import Coffee in great quantities.

Up to the present time there has been no advance in the price of Coffee in our stores, although practically throughout the country the prices of all foreign product have increased tremendously.

Our price on Coffee will remain unchanged until our supply is exhausted.
